

Ten Lectures on Cognitive Evolutionary Linguistics

By

Arie Verhagen

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

	Note on Supplementary Material	vii
	Preface by the Series Editor	viii
	Preface by the Author	x
	About the Author	xii
1	Usage-based Cognitive Linguistics, Entrenchment and Conventio- nality	1
2	The Biological Lens – Behavior, Cognition, Grammar, Meaning	21
3	The World View of Cultures – Individuals, Communities, and Linguistic Relativity	38
4	Language as a Tool for Social Cognition 1 – Inferential, Cooperative Communication	56
5	Language as a Tool for Social Cognition 2 – Complements and Perspective Management	76
6	Cognition and Semantic Change – The “Folk Model of the Mind” vs. Variation and Change in Causality Marking	96
7	On the Origins of Language 1 – Cognition and the Emergence of Sound Structure and Its Diversity	120
8	On the Origins of Language 2 – The Cultural Evolution of Words and Constructions	141
9	The Dynamics of Language and Social Cognition – Dialogues, Narratives, and Mind Reading	164
10	Towards an Integrated Science of Language, Cognition, Behavior, and Society	187
	References	207
	About the Series Editor	214
	Websites for Cognitive Linguistics and C1FCLSpeakers	215